SCOTTDALE, Feb. 2 .- Funeral serices were held yesterday afternoon at the Broadway home of John Berry for his brother, James Berry, in charge of Rev. Mr. Kelly, pastor of the United Exchaen church, Mil Run and Rev. (i. B. Strayer, paster of the United Frethren church here. Interment was ruade in the Scottdale cometery.

Library to Be Taken Over. At the meeting of the school board on Monday evening Miss Elizabeth Henry was elected teacher to take the place of Mrs. P. O. Oliver who before her marriage was Miss Marie Strick. Miss Strickler resigned several ceks ago. Miss Henry is from New Jersey. In response to a communica-tion from the borough asking that the s hoot board appoint a committee to n set with the borough n act with the borough to discuss plans for the public library, J. R. Campbell, J. M. Zimmers and A. C. Overholt were appointed. The regular monthly bills were paid.

The public library was a gift from the late A. L. Keister, made March CJ, 1940, and contains 15,000 volumes, and his an annual circulation of 70,000. No one is barred from the privileges of the fibrary. It has been located in the high school building. For several years the school board has felt the need of the room that it occupies. To get the matter properly before the people the question of whether it should be supported by the taxpayers was voted on at last election and it was decided by a great majority in the

But when his eyelids congested with the frost and his: tids congealed with the frost and his mittens froze to the logs of firewood that he carried through the door and the pine trees exploded and cracked in the darkness, he was correct in his belief that it was very very cold

But he loved the cold, and the al-lence and ausferity that went with it. The wilderness claimed him as never before. The rugged breed that were his ancestors had struggled through such seasons as this and passed a love them down through the years to

When the ice made a crust over the snow, he learned to walk on snow-shoes At first there were pulped ankles and endless floundering in the But between the fall of fresh snow and the thans that softened the crust he slowly mastered the art. Snowbird—and Dan never realized the full significance of her name until he saw her flying with incredible grace. over the snow—laughed at him at first and ran him races that would usually end in his failing headfirst into a tentor snowbank. She taught him how to ski and more than once she would step in the middle of an earnest bit of pedagory to find that he wasn't livening at all. He would seem to be tening at all.
